1. Air travel except as a passenger in any properly licensed aircraft;
2. A deliberately self-inflicted injury; including suicide or attempted suicide;
3. War, invasion, acts of foreign enemies, hostilities (whether war be declared or not), civil war, rebellion, revolution, insurrection or military or usurped power in your country of domicile, Iraq or Afghanistan;
4. The use, existence or escape of nuclear weapons material or ionising radiation from or contamination by radioactivity from any nuclear fuel or nuclear waste from the combustion of nuclear fuel;
5. A sexually transmitted disease, or Acquired Immune Deficiency Syndrome (AIDS) disease or Human Immunodeficiency Virus (HIV) infection;
6. Engaging in or taking part in naval, military or air force service or operations;
7. A criminal or illegal act committed by an Insured Person;
8. Training for or participating in professional sports of any kind.
9. The use or rental of e-bikes, e-scooters, or any other unregistered and motorized modes of transport.

COVID-19

If whilst on an overseas journey, a traveller contracts COVID-19, the Travel policy provides cover for medical expenses incurred for the treatment of COVID-19 including medical evacuation back to home country if required. Please note the traveller has a duty to take reasonable care to prevent a loss under the Travel policy and must take appropriate action to avoid or minimise any potential exposure to COVID-19. Medical Expenses incurred whilst on an interstate journey within Australia will be covered by Medicare.

Yes – cover is provided by the Travel policy for Loss of Travel or Accommodation Expenses, Cancellation or Curtailment costs following the necessary alteration or cancellation of the travellers trip due to:

1. the travellers unexpected death from COVID-19
2. the traveller contracting COVID-19 which results in the traveller being certified by a Doctor as being unable to commence the trip as planned; or
3. the traveller, a Close Relative or travelling companion of the traveller being directed by the relevant health authority to quarantine because of a close contact with a positive or suspected positive case of COVID-19; or
4. a Close Relative or travelling companion of the traveller contracting COVID-19 or their unexpected death from COVID-19

Cover for COVID is provided on the basis that claims result from an unforeseen circumstance outside the control of the traveller.

PRE-EXISTING MEDICAL CONDITIONS

Provided you have obtained a certificate of fitness to travel from your treating doctor prior to travel. The insurer may ask to see the certificate if a claim is made on the policy. The policy excludes claims where students are travelling against medical advice; travelling with a terminal condition which was diagnosed prior to travel; or travelling when unfit to do so.

However, there is no cover for Student for any lump sum death benefits or any other benefits (such as Bodily Injury) under Personal Accident & Sickness, that are related to a Pre-Existing Condition (the cover does still apply for this section for anything unrelated to the Pre-Existing Condition).

Cover for specific Pre-Existing Medical conditions is provided only under Section 4 – Medical & Additional Expenses & Cancellation & Curtailment Expenses, and only that the Insurer will not pay any expenses:

- (a) incurred where a journey is undertaken against the advice of the traveller's treating Doctor who has certified that the traveller is unfit to travel, or if the sole purpose of the Journey is to enable the traveller to seek medical attention for a Pre-Existing Condition;

- (b) incurred for any medication or ongoing treatment for a Pre-Existing Condition and which medication or treatment the traveller has been advised to continue during travel;
- (c) incurred for routine medical, optical or dental treatment or consultation.

A Pre-Existing Condition means any physical or mental defect, condition, illness, or disease, whether diagnosed or not, for which:

- (a) in the twelve (12) months prior to the person becoming a traveller, the traveller:
 - i. had an emergency department visit, was hospitalised, or had a day surgery procedure;
 - ii. required prescription medication from a Doctor;
 - iii. had regular reviews or check-ups with a Doctor;
 - iv. underwent investigation and is awaiting diagnosis and/or test results,and which defect, condition, illness or disease remains uncured and/or in respect of which there is a reasonable prospect of recurrence; or
- (b) the traveller is exhibiting symptoms at the time of booking the Journey which would cause a reasonable person to consider they might have an underlying condition and to seek the advice of a Doctor.

HIGH RISK LOCATIONS

For evacuation or emergency situations relating to security threats such as insurrection, civil unrest or political instability or a natural disaster, the Insurer not be liable for claims arising from any:

1. Expenses related to evacuation out of a country which you have travelled to after The Australian Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade has issued a Travel Warning which recommends that travelers do not undertake travel at all, ie Level 4.
2. Expenses related to evacuation out of a country or a region which you have remained in after The Australian Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade has issued a Travel Warning which recommends that travelers should leave the area and such warning or recommendation has been ignored.

AGE LIMITS

the Travel policy provides cover for travellers under 90 years of age however, cover is reduced for travellers who are aged between 75 to 90 years of age. If you are over 75 years of age, please contact Aon (uwainsuranceteam@aon.com) at least 10 days prior to departure to obtain specific advice. .

PRIVATE/ LEISURE TRAVEL

UWA allows for 4 days additional travel consisting of 2 days travel before and 2 days travel after the UWA approved business/activity. A separate stand-alone private travel insurance policy needs to be purchased to provide insurance cover for additional private/leisure days. UWA travelers must arrange their own travel insurance for all private travel days. The University cannot assist with providing this private travel insurance however please visit the following Insurer link which can assist you in obtaining a quote with 20% discount:

Please use the following promo code: ZURICH

The University is not in a position to recommend, or verify, the integrity of external and independently operated insurance facilities. If you wish to consider taking out such a policy you are obliged to exercise your own due diligence and undertake the necessary enquiries, to ensure that their products will be sufficient for your unique, individual requirements.

HOST UNIVERSITIES HEALTH INSURANCE WAIVER

Many exchange partners require exchange students to purchase health insurance to meet student visa or enrolment requirements despite being covered by UWA's travel insurance. It is your responsibility to be aware and comply with the host universities requirements.

Some Universities allow students to apply for a waiver if they present adequate proof on what is covered by UWA's policy. To confirm cover complies with the waiver requirements you will need to:

Provide Aon with the document from the host university outlining the requirements that must be met to receive the waiver via email – uwainsuranceteam@aon.com

Note: Confirmation of cover will only be provided by Aon if the requirements stipulated by the host University aligns with the coverage provided by the UWA policy.

TRAVEL EMERGENCY SERVICES PROVIDER

Safety, security and health issues can happen at any time, and it is essential that all UWA students who are travelling overseas remain informed and take particular care and responsibility for their own personal safety and health in the countries they are travelling to.

Students experiencing an emergency situation while overseas should contact Healix International
For 24 hour global emergency medical and travel assistance contact: +61 (0)7 3164 9532 (reverse charges)

Healix International are the University appointed provider for medical, safety and security expertise and assistance whilst on overseas travel. As a student of UWA, and therefore a Healix member, you receive extended medical and safety assistance 24/7 no matter where you live or travel internationally on the University's behalf.

HIRE VEHICLES

If the Approved traveller rents or hires a Rental Vehicle and:

- (a) that Rental Vehicle is involved in a collision whilst in the care of the Covered Person; or
- (b) the Rental Vehicle is stolen or damaged, the insurance can pay for the Rental Vehicle Excess chosen up to the sum insured shown in the above Schedule for Rental Vehicle Excess Waiver.

Rental Vehicle means a rented sedan, station wagon, hatchback, motorcycle or four-wheel drive (4WD) and other non-commercial vehicle rented or hired from a licensed motor vehicle rental/hire company for the sole purpose of carrying an Approved Traveller on public roadways and does not include any other vehicle or use.

Rental Vehicle Excess means the amount the Approved Traveller is legally liable to pay under the Rental Vehicle hiring agreement if the Rental Vehicle is involved in an accident or is stolen during the rental period.

Exclusions:

Insurance will not pay for any claims arising from:

- (a) any use of the Rental Vehicle by the Approved Traveller, or any other person operating the vehicle with the Approved Traveller's approval, that is in violation of the terms of the rental agreement;
- (b) any use of the Approved traveller's personal motor vehicle by the Policyholder, a Approved traveller, or any other person operating the vehicle with the Approved traveller's approval, that is in violation of the comprehensive motor vehicle insurance policy;
- (c) the Approved traveller being in control of a Rental Vehicle or their personal motor vehicle while under the influence of:
 - (i) an illegal or prescription drug (unless it was prescribed by a Doctor and taken in accordance with the Doctor's advice); or

- (ii) any non-prescription medication that was not taken in accordance with the recommendations of the manufacturer; or
- (iii) alcohol, where the Covered Person records a blood alcohol concentration (BAC) in excess of the prescribed local legal limit at the time of the incident;
- (d) the illegal or criminal use of a Rental Vehicle or the Approved traveller's personal motor vehicle by the Approved traveller, where the Approved traveller knew such use was illegal;
- (e) the use of the Rental Vehicle or Approved traveller's personal motor vehicle by a Approved traveller where the Approved traveller knew they did not hold a valid license for the country the motor vehicle is being operated in; or
- (f) any Rental Vehicle that is not insured under the insurance offered by the rental organisation, or any personal motor vehicle that is not comprehensively insured.

Conditions:

- 1) When Hiring the Rental Vehicle, the Approved Traveller must take out the comprehensive motor vehicle insurance for loss or damage to the Rental Vehicle during the rental period which is offered by the rental organisation. Provided that such insurance has been affected, there is no additional requirement under the Policy to purchase excess buy back.
- 2) In the event of a claim regarding an Approved Traveller's personal motor vehicle, the Approved Traveller must supply the insurer with the following information, to the extent that the information is available to the Approved Traveller:
 - (a) receipts (or copies) for the amount of the claim or excess paid and the name of the firm which carried out the repairs on the Approved Traveller's personal motor vehicle;
 - (b) evidence from the Approved Traveller's motor vehicle insurer stating the amount of the excess paid and the amount of any no claim bonus forfeited; and
 - (c) a copy of the last personal motor vehicle insurance renewal notice applicable to the Approved Traveller; and
 - (d) details of the total cost of the repairs.

CLAIMS

Medical & Personal Safety Claims

In the first instance you should call Healix International on +61 (0)7 3164 9532 (reverse charge telephone number) if you require emergency medical or personal safety travel assistance. Where Healix have been engaged they will liaise directly with the Insurer, Chubb Insurance to confirm cover under the Corporate Travel policy and arrange payment for the coverable event.

General Claims

Upon returning to Australia, you will be required to complete a claim form and provide supporting documentation to validate your claim. Download the Corporate Travel claim form for completion from the Insurance section of the UWA website.

- For Medical Expenses claims where Healix have not arranged payment for coverable events you will need to provide receipts, medical certificate or letter from the hospital specifying exact nature of medical condition suffered.
- For Additional Expenses claims you will need to provide receipts, copies of tickets and a letter from travel agent or airline carrier verifying reason for additional expenses and full details of any refund obtained.

- For Baggage, Travel Documents and Money claims it is important to report the incident to the relevant authority i.e. Police, Airline etc. and obtain written verification from that authority to submit with your claim form.
- For Loss of Deposits and Cancellation Charges you will need to obtain medical certificates to support any illness, or a copy of a death certificate if your travel was cancelled due to a death in the family.

So that we may process your claim quickly, please ensure you submit all supporting documentation (statements, receipts, travel itinerary etc.) with a fully completed claim form. An incomplete claim form could lead to delays in settlement. The form can be completed electronically and submitted to Aon via email uwainsuranceteam@aon.com
