Project 1	Literature Review
	Legacy data and MAUVE-MUSE datacube
	Stellar mass map
	SFR map
	rSFMS
	[O/H] map
	rMZR
	Paper 1
Project 2	Refine nGIST pipeline for value added product
	Extract value-added data product
	Refine technique to estimate O/H
	Investigate environmental effects on rFMR
	Paper 2
Project 3	Homoegenise MUSE and ALMA data
	Extract H2 information from ALMA
	Investigate role of H2 in the link between O/H and SFR
	Paper 3
Presentations	6-month Review
	Annual Reviews
Thesis
